INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

Internationalization of Higher Education: moving beyond mobility

28-30 October
University of Siena, Italy

Internationalization of higher education is an important priority for many governments, for university leaders and other higher education stakeholders. It has been on the IAU agenda for many years and has led the Association to develop policy, research and services in support of institutional efforts in internationalization.

This Conference will address:

- Internationalization: a path to more quality?
- Can internationalization change the student experience without mobility?
- Internationalization as a knowledge change agent
- How can internationalization help overcome disparities and inequalities?
